A BILL FOR AN ACT to amend the Indiana Code concerning probate.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. IC 29-3-2-1, AS AMENDED BY P.L.138-2007, SECTION 4, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2011]: Sec. 1. (a) This article applies to the following:

(1) The business affairs, physical person, and property of every incapacitated person and minor residing in Indiana.

(2) Property located in Indiana of every incapacitated person and minor residing outside Indiana.

(3) Property of every incapacitated person or minor, regardless of where the property is located, coming into the control of a fiduciary who is subject to the laws of Indiana.

(b) Except as provided in subsections (c) through (e), the court has exclusive original jurisdiction with respect to an individual who is not an adult (as defined in IC 29-3.5-1-2(1)) over all matters concerning the following:

(1) Guardians.

(2) Protective proceedings under IC 29-3-4.

In the case of an adult (as defined in IC 29-3.5-1-2(1)), a court must establish jurisdiction concerning a guardianship or a protective proceeding in accordance with IC 29-3.5-2.

(c) A juvenile court has exclusive original jurisdiction over matters relating to the following:

(1) Minors described in IC 31-30-1-1.

(2) Matters related to guardians of the person and guardianships of the person described in IC 31-30-1-1(10).

(d) Except as provided in subsection (c), courts with child custody jurisdiction under:

(1) IC 31-14-10;

(2) IC 31-17-2-1; or

(3) IC 31-21-5 (or IC 31-17-3-3 before its repeal);

(e) A mental health division of a superior court under IC 33-33-49 has jurisdiction concurrent with the court in mental health proceedings under IC 12-26 relating to guardianship and protective orders.

(f) Jurisdiction under this section is not dependent on issuance or service of summons.

SECTION 2. IC 29-3-2-2 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2011]: Sec. 2. (a) The venue for the appointment of a guardian or for protective proceedings is as follows:

(1) If the alleged incapacitated person or minor resides in Indiana, venue is:

(A) in the county where the alleged incapacitated person or minor resides; or

(B) if the proceeding is for the appointment of a temporary guardian of the person for an alleged incapacitated person or minor who is in need of medical care, in the county where a facility is located that is providing or attempting to provide medical care to the alleged incapacitated person or minor.

(2) If the alleged incapacitated person or minor does not reside in Indiana, then venue is in any county where any property of the alleged incapacitated person or minor is located. However, if the proceeding is for the appointment of a temporary guardian of the person for an alleged incapacitated person or minor who is in need of medical care, venue is in the county where the facility providing or attempting to provide medical care is located.

(3) If the alleged incapacitated person is an adult (as defined in IC 29-3.5-1-2(1)), venue is determined under the laws of the state or country having jurisdiction under IC 29-3.5-2. However, if a court in Indiana has jurisdiction under IC 29-3.5-2, the rules for determining venue set forth in this section apply.

(b) If proceedings are commenced in more than one (1) county, they shall be stayed except in the county where first commenced until final determination of the proper venue by the court in the county where first commenced. After proper venue has been determined, all proceedings in any county other than the county where jurisdiction has been finally determined to exist shall be dismissed. If the proper venue is finally determined to be in another county, the court shall transmit the original file to the proper county. The proceedings shall be commenced by the filing of a petition with the court, and the proceeding first commenced extends to all of the property of the minor or the incapacitated person unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(c) If it appears to the court at any time that:

(1) the proceeding was commenced in the wrong county;

(2) the residence of the incapacitated person or the minor has been changed to another county;

(3) the proper venue is determined to be otherwise under the

Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure; or

(4) it would be in the best interest of the incapacitated person or the minor and the property of the minor or the incapacitated person;

the court may order the proceeding, together with all papers, files, and a certified copy of all orders, transferred to another court in Indiana. That court shall complete the proceeding as if originally commenced in that court. The court may in like manner transfer a guardianship or protective proceeding in Indiana to a court outside Indiana if the other court assumes jurisdiction to complete the proceeding as if originally commenced in that court. Before any transfer is made under this subsection, a hearing pursuant to notice shall be held in the same manner as provided with respect to the appointment of a guardian.

(d) Where a guardian has been appointed by a court that does not have probate jurisdiction, the matter shall be transferred in accordance with the proper venue to a court having probate jurisdiction for qualification of the guardian and for further proceedings in the guardianship.

(e) Nothing in this section shall be construed as a requirement of jurisdiction.

SECTION 3. IC 29-3-3-4 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2011]: Sec. 4. (a) If:

(1) a guardian has not been appointed for an incapacitated person or minor;

(2) an emergency exists;

(3) the welfare of the incapacitated person or minor requires immediate action; and

(4) no other person appears to have authority to act in the circumstances; the court, on petition by any person or on its own motion, may appoint a temporary guardian for the incapacitated person or minor for a specified period not to exceed ~~sixty (60)~~ ninety (90) days. No such appointment shall be made except after notice and hearing unless it is alleged and found by the court that immediate and irreparable injury to the person or injury, loss, or damage to the property of the alleged incapacitated person or minor may result before the alleged incapacitated person or minor can be heard in response to the petition. If a temporary guardian is appointed without notice and the alleged incapacitated person or minor files a petition that the guardianship be terminated or the court order modified, the court shall hear and determine the petition at the earliest possible time.

(b) If the court finds that a previously appointed guardian is not effectively performing fiduciary duties and that the welfare of the protected person requires immediate action, the court may suspend the authority of the previously appointed guardian and appoint a temporary guardian for the protected person for any period fixed by the court. The

1 authority of the previously appointed guardian is suspended as long as 2 a temporary guardian appointed under this subsection has authority to 3 act.

4 (c) A temporary guardian appointed under this section has only the 5 responsibilities and powers that are ordered by the court. The court
 6 shall order only the powers that are necessary to prevent immediate and 7 substantial injury or loss to the person or property of the alleged 8 incapacitated person or minor in an appointment made under this 9 section.

10 (d) Proceedings under this section are not subject to the provisions
 11 of IC 29-3-4.

12 (e) A proceeding under this section may be joined with a proceeding
 13 under IC 29-3-4 or IC 29-3-5.

 15 FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2011]: Sec. 1. (a) Any person
 16 indebted to an incapacitated person or minor, or having possession of 18 debt or deliver the property to a foreign guardian appointed by a court

 19 of the state in which the incapacitated person or minor resides upon 20 being presented with proof of the foreign guardian's appointment and 30 under a law similar to IC 29-3.5-2.

31 ~~(3)~~ (4) That the foreign guardian is entitled to receive the payment

Chapter 2. Jurisdiction

Sec. 1. In determining under section 3 of this chapter and IC 29-3.5-3-1(d) whether a respondent has a significant connection with a particular state, the court shall consider:

- (1) the location of the respondent's family and other persons required to be notified of the guardianship or protective proceeding;
- (2) the length of time the respondent at any time was physically present in the state and the duration of any absence;
- (3) the location of the respondent's property; and
- (4) the extent to which the respondent has ties to the state such as registering to vote, filing a state or local tax return, registering a vehicle, possessing a driver's license, having social relationships, and receiving services in the state.

Sec. 2. This chapter provides the exclusive jurisdictional basis for a court of this state to appoint a guardian or issue a protective order for an adult.

Sec. 3. A court of this state has jurisdiction to appoint a guardian or issue a protective order for a respondent if:

- (1) this state is the respondent's home state;
- (2) on the date the petition is filed, this state is a significant connection state and:
 - (A) the respondent does not have a home state or a court of the respondent's home state has declined to exercise jurisdiction because this state is a more appropriate forum; or
 - (B) the respondent has a home state, a petition for an appointment or order is not pending in a court of that state or another significant connection state, and, before the court makes the appointment or issues the order:
 - (i) a petition for an appointment or order is not filed in the respondent's home state;
 - (ii) an objection to the court's jurisdiction is not filed by a person required to be notified of the proceeding; and
 - (iii) the court in this state concludes that it is an appropriate forum under the factors set forth in section 6 of this chapter;
- (3) this state does not have jurisdiction under either subdivision (1) or (2), the respondent's home state and all significant connection states have declined to exercise jurisdiction because this state is the more appropriate forum, and jurisdiction in this state is consistent with the constitutions of this state and the United States; or
- (4) the requirements for special jurisdiction under section 4 of this chapter are met.

Sec. 4. (a) A court of this state lacking jurisdiction under section 3(1) through 3(3) of this chapter has special jurisdiction to do any of the following:

(1) Appoint a temporary guardian in an emergency as permitted by IC 29-3-3-4 for a term not exceeding ninety (90) days for a respondent who is physically present in this state.

(2) Issue a protective order with respect to real or tangible personal property located in this state.

(3) Appoint a guardian or conservator for an incapacitated or protected person for whom a provisional order to transfer the proceeding from another state has been issued under procedures similar to IC 29-3.5-3-1.

(b) If a petition for the appointment of a guardian in an emergency is brought in this state and this state was not the respondent's home state on the date the petition was filed, the court shall dismiss the proceeding at the request of the court of the home state whether dismissal is requested before or after the emergency appointment.

Sec. 5. Except as otherwise provided in section 4 of this chapter, a court that has appointed a guardian or issued a protective order consistent with this chapter has exclusive and continuing jurisdiction over the proceeding until it is terminated by the court or the appointment or order expires by its own terms.

Sec. 6. (a) A court of this state having jurisdiction under section 3 of this chapter to appoint a guardian or issue a protective order may decline to exercise its jurisdiction if it determines at any time that a court of another state is a more appropriate forum.

(b) If a court of this state declines to exercise its jurisdiction under subsection (a), it shall either dismiss or stay the proceeding. The court may impose any condition the court considers just and proper, including the condition that a petition for the appointment of a guardian or issuance of a protective order be filed promptly in another state.

(c) In determining whether it is an appropriate forum, the court shall consider all relevant factors, including:

(1) any expressed preference of the respondent;

(2) whether abuse, neglect, or exploitation of the respondent has occurred or is likely to occur, and which state could best protect the respondent from the abuse, neglect, or exploitation;

(3) the length of time the respondent was physically present in or was a legal resident of this or another state;

(4) the distance of the respondent from the court in each state;

(5) the financial circumstances of the respondent's estate;

(6) the nature and location of the evidence;

(7) the ability of the court in each state to decide the issue expeditiously and the procedures necessary to present evidence;

(8) the familiarity of the court of each state with the facts and

1 issues in the proceeding; and

2 (9) if an appointment were made, the court's ability to 3 monitor the conduct of the guardian.

4 Sec. 7. (a) If at any time a court of this state determines that it
5 acquired jurisdiction to appoint a guardian or issue a protective 6 order because of unjustifiable conduct, the court may:

7 (1) decline to exercise jurisdiction;

8 (2) exercise jurisdiction for the limited purpose of fashioning
9 an appropriate remedy to ensure the health, safety, and 10 welfare of the respondent or the protection of the 11 respondent's property or prevent a repetition of the 12 unjustifiable conduct, including staying the proceeding until 13 a petition for the appointment of a guardian or issuance of a 14 protective order is filed in a court of another state having 15 jurisdiction; or

16 (3) continue to exercise jurisdiction after considering:

17 (A) the extent to which the respondent and all persons
18 required to be notified of the proceedings have acquiesced
19 in the exercise of the court's jurisdiction;

20 (B) whether it is a more appropriate forum than the court
21 of any other state under the factors set forth in section 6(c)
22 of this chapter; and

23 (C) whether the court of any other state would have 24 jurisdiction under factual circumstances in substantial 25 conformity with the jurisdictional standards of section 3 of 26 this chapter.

27 (b) If a court of this state determines that it acquired
28 jurisdiction to appoint a guardian or issue a protective order
29 because a party seeking to invoke its jurisdiction engaged in 30 unjustifiable conduct, it may assess against that party necessary
31 and reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, investigative 32 fees, court costs, communication expenses, witness fees and 33 expenses, and travel expenses. The court may not assess fees, costs, 34 or expenses of any kind against this state or a governmental 35 subdivision, agency, or instrumentality of this state unless 36 authorized by law other than this chapter.

37 Sec. 8. If a petition for the appointment of a guardian or 38 issuance of a protective order is brought in this state and this state 39 was not the respondent's home state on the date the petition was 40 filed, in addition to complying with the notice requirements of this 41 state, notice of the petition must be given to those persons who 42 would be entitled to notice of the petition if a proceeding were 43 brought in the respondent's home state. The notice must be given 44 in the same manner as notice is required to be given in this state.

45 Sec. 9. Except for a petition for the appointment of a guardian
46 in an emergency or issuance of a protective order limited to property located in this state under section 4(a)(1) or 4(a)(2) of this chapter, if a petition for the appointment of a guardian or issuance of a protective order is filed in this state and in another state and neither petition has been dismissed or withdrawn, the following rules apply:

(1) If the court in this state has jurisdiction under section 3 of this chapter, it may proceed with the case unless a court in another state acquires jurisdiction under provisions similar to section 3 of this chapter before the appointment or issuance of the order.

(2) If the court in this state does not have jurisdiction under section 3 of this chapter, whether at the time the petition is filed or at any time before the appointment or issuance of the order, the court shall stay the proceeding and communicate with the court in the other state. If the court in the other state has jurisdiction, the court in this state shall dismiss the petition unless the court in the other state determines that the court in this state is a more appropriate forum.

Chapter 3. Transfer of Guardianship or Conservatorship

Sec. 1. (a) A guardian appointed in this state may petition the court to transfer the guardianship to another state.

(b) Notice of a petition under subsection (a) must be given to the persons that would be entitled to notice of a petition in this state for the appointment of a guardian.

(c) On the court's own motion or on request of the guardian, the protected person, or other person required to be notified of the petition, the court shall hold a hearing on a petition filed under subsection (a).

(d) The court shall issue an order provisionally granting a petition to transfer a guardianship and shall direct the guardian to petition for guardianship in the other state if the court is satisfied that the guardianship will be accepted by the court in the other state and the court finds that:

(1) the protected person:

(A) is physically present in the other state;

(B) is reasonably expected to move permanently to the other state; or

(C) has a significant connection to the other state as determined under IC 29-3.5-2-1;

(2) an objection to the transfer has not been made or, if an objection has been made, the objector has not established that the transfer would be contrary to the interests of the protected person;

(3) plans for care and services for the protected person in the other state are reasonable and sufficient; and

(4) adequate arrangements will be made for management of the protected person's property.

(e) The court shall issue a final order confirming the transfer and terminating the guardianship upon its receipt of:

(1) a provisional order accepting the proceeding from the court to which the proceeding is to be transferred which is issued under provisions similar to section 2 of this chapter; and

(2) the documents required to terminate a guardianship in this state.

Sec. 2. (a) To confirm transfer of a guardianship or conservatorship transferred to this state under provisions similar to section 1 of this chapter, the guardian or conservator must petition the court in this state to accept the guardianship or conservatorship. The petition must include a certified copy of the other state's provisional order of transfer.

(b) Notice of a petition under subsection (a) must be given to those persons that would be entitled to notice if the petition were a petition for the appointment of a guardian or issuance of a protective order in both the transferring state and this state. The notice must be given in the same manner as notice is required to be given in this state.

(c) On the court's own motion or on request of the guardian or conservator, the incapacitated or protected person, or other person required to be notified of the proceeding, the court shall hold a hearing on a petition filed under subsection (a).

(d) The court shall issue an order provisionally granting a petition filed under subsection (a) unless:

(1) an objection is made and the objector establishes that transfer of the proceeding would be contrary to the interests of the incapacitated or protected person; or

(2) the guardian or conservator is ineligible for appointment in this state.

(e) The court shall issue a final order accepting the proceeding and appointing the guardian or conservator as guardian or conservator in this state upon its receipt from the court from which the proceeding is being transferred of a final order issued under provisions similar to section 1 of this chapter transferring the proceeding to this state.

(f) Not later than ninety (90) days after issuance of a final order accepting transfer of a guardianship or conservatorship, the court shall determine whether the guardianship or conservatorship needs to be modified to conform to the law of this state.

(g) In granting a petition under this section, the court shall recognize a guardianship or conservatorship order from the other state, including the determination of the incapacitated or protected person's incapacity and the appointment of the guardian or conservator.

(h) The denial by a court of this state of a petition to accept a guardianship or conservatorship transferred from another state does not affect the ability of the guardian or conservator to seek appointment as guardian in this state under IC 29-3 if the court has jurisdiction to make an appointment other than by reason of the provisional order of transfer.

Chapter 4. Registration and Recognition of Order From Other States

Sec. 1. If:

- (1) a guardian has been appointed in another state;
- (2) a petition for the appointment of a guardian is not pending in this state; and
- (3) the guardian appointed in the other state gives notice to the appointing court of an intent to register the guardianship order;

the guardian appointed in the other state may register the guardianship order in this state by filing certified copies of the guardian's order and letters of office as a foreign judgment in the court of this state having probate jurisdiction and venue of the registered guardianship.

Sec. 2. If:

- (1) a conservator has been appointed in another state;
- (2) a petition for a guardianship or protective order is not pending in this state; and
- (3) the conservator appointed in the other state gives notice to the appointing court of an intent to register the protective order;

the conservator appointed in the other state may register the protective order in this state by filing as a foreign judgment certified copies of the conservator's order, letters of office, and bond, if any, in the court of this state having probate jurisdiction in any county in which property belonging to the protected person is located.

Sec. 3. (a) Upon registration of a guardianship or protective order from another state, the guardian or conservator may exercise in this state all powers authorized in the order of appointment except as prohibited under the laws of this state, including maintaining actions and proceedings in this state and, if the guardian or conservator is not a resident of this state, subject to any conditions imposed upon nonresident parties.

(b) A court of this state may grant any relief available under this chapter and other laws of this state to enforce a registered order.
